

Super Global Variables

Super Global Variables

In PHP, superglobals are predefined variables that are always accessible, regardless of scope, and they hold information about the server, client, and various other aspects of the current request. These variables are available in all scopes throughout a script.

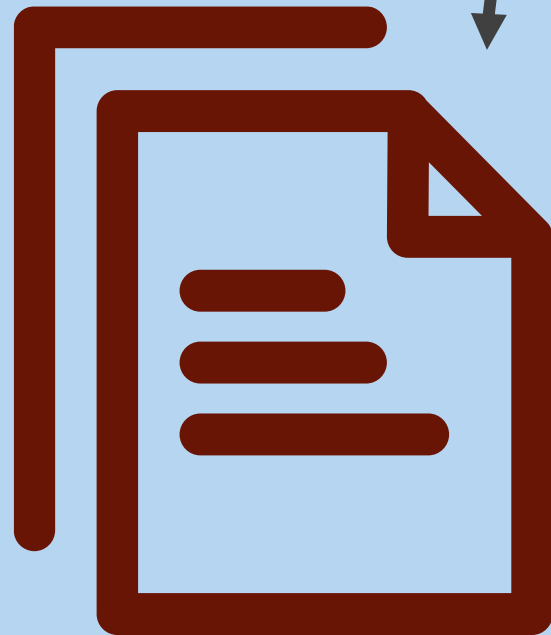

file1.php

$x=9;

Super Global Variables

file2.php

echo $x;

Types of Super Global Variables

- $_GET
- $_POST
- $_REQUEST
- $_SERVER
- $_COOKIE
- $_SESSION
- $_FILES
- $GLOBALS
- $_ENV