Super Global Variables

$_SESSION

$_SESSION Super Global Variables

$_SESSION is a superglobal array variable in PHP that is used to store session variables. Session variables are used to store user-specific information across multiple pages or visits to a website during a single browsing session.

Server

Session Store

Client

Set Info

Get Info